

Monthly Newsletter

August
2025

Heads up!

Annual Reviews Begin in September!

Come ready with your top numbers, proud moments, and one goal for this year.

Reminders

Continue to check your time-sheets and make sure they're correct!

New Door Hangers have arrived! Make sure to pass them out to neighbors of every install

August Events

Saturday, August 9th

Annual River Raisin Cleanup Day

Riverfront Parking Lot behind 116 W Front St, Monroe, MI. A volunteer community clean-up of the River Raisin organized by the City's Commission on the Environment. Individuals, families, and teams can help remove debris from the river (gloves, boots, and tools provided). Free t-shirts and lunch are offered to participants

Saturday, August 30th

Monroe Labor Day Parade & Festival

Loranger Square, Downtown Monroe. Festivities include a parade at 12:00 PM (starting at Monroe St. and Jones Ave.), live music from 2-9 PM, plenty of food trucks, and a kids' zone with princess characters and face painting

Read Full Review

Sean Almes

★★★★★

Great family-owned business! Johnny is incredible. I got the $89 air conditioning tune-up and it was much needed. Working great now and my unit is 38 years old! Thankful for Johnny and his years of experience, smile, and laugh. This man deserves a raise, he has my respect, and the business has my recommendation!

Angela Reese

★★★★★

Awesome experience. Chris was fast with the quote and getting us on the schedule. Kevin was efficient and knowledgeable 👍. Office staff was quick with call backs and Justin was very helpful.

Read Full Review

Happy Birthday!

Kyle Crossman - Aug 17
Jeffery Haynes - Aug 17
David Taylor - Aug 18
Kazimier Floyd-Engesser - Aug 21
Kevin Hemphill - Aug 22
Ricardo Traile - Aug 31

Precaution

"Precaution isn't extra work—it's the cheapest insurance you'll ever carry."

Kyle's Word of The Day